MOSCATEL FINISH

STRAIGHT BOURBON WHISKEY FINISHED IN MOSCATEL CASKS

LIMITED RELEASE

EXPLORATORY CASK SERIES

These decades old Moscatel casks were found in the Setubal Region of Portugal and soon became home to Doc Swinson's blend of two five-year bourbon whiskeys. Aging in the pacific northwest over several months our master blender selected each cask as they exuded specific characteristics to showcase the bourbon.

Knitting together flavors of sweet caramel and stone fruits from Doc Swinson's "Blender's Cut Bourbon" with notes of wild flower honey, apricots, and seasoned oak creates a flavor experience like no other. One of three limited release fortified wine finishes produced for summer 2022.

DESCRIPTION

There's a whole group of spirituous delights out there that rarely make it to the American market, let alone outside of the region they are crafted in. Whether these beverages are super rare or just atypical for the American palate, we found them to be excellent and want to share some of these epic flavors with you.

This Moscatel Finished Straight Bourbon Whiskey is one example of this tradition of sharing new and exciting flavor profiles. Grandma's canned pears in syrup, butterscotch, golden raisins, and sweet tobacco are some of the notes you'll encounter with this Moscatel finish. This limited release produced just a few hundred bottles, so if you see it, we recommend you grab it as our Exploratory Casks are one of a kind.
